

“Natural Beauty”

The Tornado

I have chosen to represent the natural beauty of a tornado. Awe and beauty are created as a tornado forms and travels across the sky, rapidly changing colours before contacting the earth, and tearing a colourful country garden apart and sucking it up.

The force pulls and twists the flowers up into a dusty blue and black darkness, before disappearing completely.